

Greenbriar Equity Group Completes Acquisition of Stag-Parkway, Inc.

RYE, NY, July 17, 2006 -- Greenbriar Equity Group LLC today announced it has acquired a majority stake in Stag Parkway, Inc. the leading U.S. full line distributor of recreational vehicle (RV) parts and accessories. Greenbriar acquired its interest from the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Stanley Sunshine, who will retain a substantial interest in the business. Terms were not disclosed.

Headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, Stag sources from over 500 suppliers and services a customer base of over 2,000 RV dealers and independent service locations. The Company stocks over 15,000 parts and accessories at its national network of distribution centers, and provides same day or next day delivery to RV dealers. In May 2006, Stag acquired Development Training, Inc. (DTI), the leading provider of aftermarket service parts to RV dealers. The combination allows the company to provide the broadest and highest quality products and services to both the RV dealer and supplier communities. Stan Sunshine will remain as Chief Executive Officer and the entire senior management team will remain intact.

"We are delighted to have Greenbriar as a partner and investor," stated Stan Sunshine, "I have been impressed with the operating expertise and investment approach of the Greenbriar team. Working together, we will continue the growth of the business, while achieving our mission of delivering profitable business solutions to the RV industry in partnership with our employees, suppliers and customers."

"Stan Sunshine has established Stag as a critical distribution link in the RV industry," stated Jill Raker, Managing Director of Greenbriar Equity Group. "We are excited to work with Stan and his management team. They have already built a tremendous franchise and we expect together to continue enhancing Stag's leadership position in the RV parts and accessories industry."

Greenbriar was advised in this transaction by Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP. Allied Capital and Bank of America arranged financing for the transaction. The Company relied on Brookwood Associates for financial advice and Greenberg Traurig LLP for counsel.
